

the following: the, and, but, or, so, because.

These words are used to connect ideas and sentences in a text.

For example, in the sentence 'The cat sat on the mat and the dog barked', the word 'and' connects the two actions.

Another example is 'The car is fast, but it is also expensive', where 'but' shows a contrast.

These words are called 'conjunctions'.

They help us to write longer and more interesting sentences.

Can you think of other words that connect ideas?

Try writing a short paragraph using some of these words.

Remember to use them correctly!

Good luck!
