SECTION 1

ARTICLE I

Section 1. All legislative powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.

Section 2. The House of Representatives shall be composed of Members chosen every second Year by the People of the several States, and the Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch of the State Legislature.

SECTION 2

Section 1. The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, chosen by the Legislature thereof, for a Term of six Years; and each Senator shall have the Qualifications requisite for Senators of the most numerous Branch of the State Legislature.

SECTION 3

Section 1. The Senators and Representatives before Congress, and the Members of the State Legislatures, and all Persons holding an Office under the United States, shall be bound by Oath or Affirmation to support this Constitution.

SECTION 4

Section 1. The Privileges and Immunities of the United States shall be guaranteed to each State.
